Internships . . . Hope for the best . . . Right . . . what it will entail. . . Shopping for toilet paper in mid-town, sorting out old Artforums in an abandoned restroom, making cold calls to figure out the best night of the week to hold Art Openings . . . All of this I did, and more. Will I learn, what will I learn, did I learn, what did I learn, I will no doubt, not be paid, but the experience is worth it. I was paid in Art . . . A Robert Goodnough print. Where did I intern: Tibor De Nagy Gallery. It was worth it. And I learned a lot.
