

“THE DENVER BOOT”

1982 Ongoing

Marilyn Monroe is in the car, a 1980 blue Saab 2002. She waves and the guys at Colletta's kinda fancy her, and that gets me out a lot parking tickets. She's that muse, that in-between siren, who negotiates my parking dilemmas. Nonetheless, these dilemmas accrue over four years and now all of Marilyn's magic has faded . . . boot and accompanying fines must be paid. Nothing in between. Funny it's called the Denver Boot, and I'm from Denver. Nothing in between there either.
